1980s HORROR THEMED BAR HOSTING ANNUAL HALLOWEEN BASH AND OFFERING FREE DRINKS WITH KILLER COSTUME

LOS ANGELES BAR AND VENUE BLUE MOON MONDAYS IS CELEBRATING THEIR ANNUAL HALLOWEEN EXTRAVAGANZA WITH FREE DRINKS, FOOD TRUCKS, GIVEAWAYS, AND MORE

LA, Calif. – Sept. 24, 2018 – LA’s one and only 1980s horror themed bar and venue, Blue Moon Mondays, is hosting its annual Halloween bash Oct. 31 from 9 p.m. to 3 a.m. and is handing out “good for one free drink” tickets to those in costume. Tickets for the event are being sold online for $20 and will also be available the night of for $25. Entry to the freak fest includes an intimate, special performance by the LA punk band X and the bubblegum dream-pop artist Ariel Pink, and a raffle ticket for a chance to win a pair of passes to the “Stranger Things” season three premiere.

“Halloween is our favorite holiday. It’s a chance for all the weirdos like us to let their inner freak go wild, so we knew we had to put on a show that would make history,” quoted co-owner of Blue Moon Mondays, Cobie Cortez. “This year we’re bringing in more, from over-the-top giveaways to two of my favorite artists performing in our own backyard to hundreds of decorations illuminating the building. We can’t wait for our guests to get spooky and dance till they’re dead.”

Along with two very special live performances, Blue Moon Mondays has also booked Echo Park’s favorite DJ, Part Time Punks, who will be spinning the best 1980s tunes and Halloween jams all through the night. Both the performances and DJ set will take place on the bar's private rooftop patio that will screen 1980s horror movies along a picturesque backdrop of downtown LA. Also on the rooftop patio, free games including pumpkin toss and bobbing for apples will be there for everyone and anyone to participate and have fun with.

Founded by the local weirdos of Los Angeles, Blue Moon Mondays is a venue and bar for the souls of horror freaks and new wavers to gather and harvest a night of howls, screams, and cries. Blue Moon Mondays aims to serve all its creatures electrifying drinks and mouth-watering food with an ambience that will knock you right off your feet. The bar and venue offers every freak and ghoul a safe space to unleash their inner stranger thing and encourages dancing till the break of dawn. Blue Moon Mondays has become Echo Park's place to die for.

With a good amount of fun taking place on the bar's rooftop patio, inside the bar there will be a free photo booth filled with Halloween props that instantly prints two sets of photo strips and even emails the photos directly to the guests. Also inside the venue will be a candy bar filled with an array of everyone's favorite sweets and treats. If guests get hungry for a midnight snack, there will be multiple food trucks parked outside the venue and each truck will offer a variety of foods for meat lovers, vegetarians, and vegans.

Along with the raffle for a pair of passes to the Stranger Things season three premiere, there will also be a costume contest judged by the friends of the bar's owners. The top three winners will all receive movie passes to the ArcLight in Hollywood and the first place winner will get an all you can eat, all expense paid breakfast at Blue Moon Mondays' specialty breakfast Mondays.
